Chicago, May 1.—President Weeghman of the Chicago Cubs took issue with Garry Herrmann to-day on the charge that he would have to diminish his playit was not necessary for him to do so.

"I have received no wire from President Tener insisting that I reduce my roster to the twenty-one limit," said Weeshman. "It is in the peace agreement that Phil Ball of the Browns and myself be permitted to carry as many time. That is what I intend to do. There are a few magnates, perhaps, in the league who have protested against my retaining and using as many players as Ball and I do. President Johnson is not making the Browns cut down to the twenty-five limit, so there must be a mis-take somewhere. I am not worrying." CINCINNATI, May 1.—According to August Herrmann, chairman of the Na-tional Commission, the Chicago Cubs must keep within the twenty-one player limit, but may have as many other players on the ineligible list as they wish, so they can take their time about disposing of those not wanted. These extras are not eligible for play, in his version.

Secretary Heydler of the National eague explained last night that the Chicago Cubs must file the regular list of twenty-one eligible players, but can shift men from the ineligible list to the active list and back again as often as they wish-just as long as a man once ineligible stays so for at least ter
